Letters To The Editor

Tim Balduff was regrettably unmentioned in the last issue of the newsletter. One of the trip reports I received mentioned a canoe poler who was among the many participants during the cross state trip. Had I had my wits about me I would have derived a conclusion and realized that the trip reporter was referring to Tim. Our apologies.

Go To The Website

We are strongly urging everyone to visit our website. It gets better all the time. Everyone with a computer and an internet connection should really consider getting the newsletter online. It now costs the club an average of $100 every quarter to publish the paper version of the newsletter. We could cut that cost considerably if we concentrated on web content. We will continue to offer the newsletter to anyone who wishes to receive it via the mail, but please, consider the alternative. You can get updates there and sometimes goodies that you won't see here.

This newsletter is dedicated to pictures of the cross state trip. Thanks to Dennis Billow for the pictures. Rather than try to name everyone and risk offending anyone I did not recognize, I am leaving the pictures uncaptioned. Enjoy.
